

When & Where: September 26, 2019; 5:30-8:00 P.M. at the Living Arts of Tulsa at 307 East M.B. Brady Street

Who: The Rotaract Club of Tulsa is the premiere organization for young professionals interested in advancing both their career and their community. Sponsored by the Rotary Club of Tulsa, Rotaract aims to develop future leaders within the Tulsa community through service, professional development, and a commitment to learning about the global impact of our actions.

Why: The proceeds of the evening will sponsor Rotaract initiatives such as (1) Rotaract Kicks, a Rotaract charity that supplies athletic shoes to local children who would like to play sports but cannot afford shoes. (2) Rebuilding Together Tulsa, our hometown nonprofit service project, whose mission is to end substandard senior housing in Tulsa; (3) Main Springs, our international charity, which provides a home, school, and vocational training for homeless girls in Tanzania; (4) Rotaract Scholarship, a Rotaract charity that awards a scholarship to one male and one female Oklahoma student each year.

Sponsorship Levels:

Platinum = $5,000 donation with central, prominent display of donor's logo and name along with the event name on all posters, fliers, and signage in advance and on the night of the event; 2 tables included. The Platinum Sponsorship also includes six guest passes to a Rotaract meeting and the option to have a company representative be a keynote speaker to discuss their company's community-giving philosophy.

Diamond = $2,500 donation with prominent display of the donor's logo and name on all posters, fliers, and signage in advance and on the night of the event; 1 table included. The Diamond Sponsorship also includes three guest passes to a Rotaract meeting.
